Sunday 11 - 6

10/17/14 9:30 am

Good Morning:

Wow I just got up at 8:30 am, I guess this must be some resting time. Some days we need this. Of course I guess I am officially getting older now. This week I submitted my application to start receiving social security retirement payments. Of course I'll never see the check, I'm starting in January, since all is now direct deposit. This is just fine, when I was just starting my first work career I didn't expect s.s. to still be around.

Jon is busy following up on his tanks as he is fermenting the next vintage. He has 1,000 gallons of apple juice fermenting to make carbonated hard apple cider. We sampled it on Wednesday morning and it is very flavorful, about halfway through the fermentation process. I was at the winery on Wednesday to help Jon with pressing frozen Frontenac Gris grapes to make our ice wine Mullner Nice. These grapes and the 1,000 gallons of apple juice came from Trumps Orchard of Faribault, Mn. Scott Trump, close to Jon's age, himself does the deliveries and is a very nice young fellow.

We have a new project just starting. We have contracted to provide wine for the "Holidazzle Market Place" that replaces the Holidazzle Parade in downtown Minneapolis.

Quoting from the Star Tribune, "The Holidazzle parade marched down Nicollet Mall for the last time in December, but the holiday celebration will return as a European-style marketplace.

Steve Cramer, Downtown Council president, said Friday that the council hopes to reinvent Holidazzle as a shopping, eating and entertainment experience centered on Peavey Plaza.

"It would be a concentrated opportunity to do some gift shopping, to have some food items, some beer, mulled wine, that kind of thing," Cramer said." WCCO Story Click Here

Our wine will be used for making the mulled wine. This is a new venture for us, Jon worked through the negotiations and contract.

Still a very good deal!

We still offer discount coupons on two locations: The Value Connection <http://www.thevalueconnection.com/search?search=millner+heritage+winery> and St. Cloud Market

Place <https://www.rabezauction.com/search.cfm?mid=147&search=keyword> (Then search with Millner Heritage Winery.)

Purchase of wine by case with certificates would also receive our normal 15% discount, equaling up to a 55% total discount. Just a plain good deal.
